Duncan Case Goes to Jury Today

VENTURA, Calif. (AP) The long, hard-fought murder case of Elizabeth Duncan goes to the jury today.
The jury of eight women and four men will start deliberating Mrs. Duncan's fate after hearing Superior Court Judge Charles F. Blackstock's instructions.
They will determine whether Mrs. Duncan, 54, hired two men to kill her son Frank's pregnant bride, Olga, as the prosecution charges.
During the four-week trial the state produced a mass of evidence intended to prove that Mrs. Duncan was so jealous of her son that she arranged to eliminate her daughter-in-law.
The defense contended that two minor criminals Augustine Baldonado 26, and Luis Moya 20, kidnaped Olga in a ransom plot last Nov. 17 and then killed her.
Baldonado and Moya confessed strangling the 30-year-old Canadian nurse and said Mrs. Duncan had promised them $6,000 for the job. Both testified against Mrs. Duncan.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

A letter from one of our readers stated that she married at 14 and now regrets that she can't go out more. I married at 15, am 17 now and very happy. My husband is 23, a hard working guy. He comes straight home from work, is very good to me, we go out occasionally on a weekend and are saving for a home and family. I didn't expect to go out much after I was married. I don't think age makes so much difference in marriage. It's the people involved, with all its sacrifices and responsibilities, for anything else.

Dear Debbie: Right you are. However, since your few teenagers share your view, I'll continue to oppose very young marriages. The average youngster of 15 can't even face the responsibility of cleaning up her own room, and that's as it should be. A fully developed sense of responsibility is rare at 15, or even 17. Cheers to you.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My mother permits me to babysit with my younger sisters, but she won't let me do it outside the home. I'd like to earn some money and I could get lots of work around my neighborhood. I'm 13 and mom says I must learn a few things about babysitting before she'll trust me with other people's children - Loretta.

Dear Loretta: You seem like a responsible youngster. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "You're In Charge". Study these rules for babysitters and when you know them all, perhaps mother will let you work outside.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I'm a widow of 61 and have been going out with a widower who is 64. We're very fond of each other, are congenial and I am financially independent. He says he will never marry again, that he is too old for this responsibility. I'm trying to convince him that we each need companionship in our old age and that marriage is the best way to insure it. He says "no." - Carmen

Dear Carmen: Don Juan wants to remain free and unfettered; apparently he doesn't feel the same need for assured companionship that you do. So, you take him single or you don't have him at all. You are very fortunate to have a good friend. Be satisfied.

Moscow radio quoted him as saying, "We are all pained by Nasser's recent anti-Communist speeches in Damascus."

When the President of the United Arab Republic (Nasser) about Communism and Communists "he turns himself with the language of imperialism," Khrushchev asserted.

Herter Urges Passage of Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Acting Secretary of State Christian A. Herter urged Congress today to pass a foreign aid program.

He said no other expenditure could contribute more to the achievement of the present objectives of our national life.

Herter opened the administration's drive to head off the anti-Communist drive of the newly Democratic Congress.

Appearing before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Herter emphasized what he called the immediate need of the $1,000,000,000 for military aid, designed to enable allies to keep forces of five million on the ready.

But he bore down especially hard on economic aid considered most vulnerable to members of Congress seeking to hold down spending without to much pain to domestic programs.

Soviet and Chinese Communist economic and military assistance programs began in 1954, have been accelerated during the past year, Herter said.

He quoted Nikita Khrushchev on economic competition between the Communist bloc and the free world and went on "we have no excuse for any doubt as to the purpose or seriousness of this drive."

Underdeveloped countries, the secretary said, value national freedom and democracy, but of many "the need and desire for improvement in their standards of living is so compulsive that they will choose to advance under duress and dictatorship if they believe that to be the only way."

Militarily, Herter summed up, foreign aid "supplies the shield; politically it promotes freedom and stability; economically it improves conditions of life; psychologically it displays our determination to continue a role of leadership in the fight for free world objectives."

Old Hands Say Exhibitions Are Just as Tough

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Three of major league baseball's top pitchers today stood ready to testify that play during the exhibition season is just as tough as during the regular campaign.

Willie Mays, San Francisco outfielder, sidelined with a split leg; Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees, who spent valuable time on the bench with a shoulder injury; and the Yankees' Don Larsen, latest of spring training's major casualties, all have irrefutable evidence about the perils of play during the exhibition season.

Larsen, only pitcher to fashion a perfect game in the World Series, had to quit with a shoulder injury while the St. Louis Cardinals were ripping his pitching for a 10-3 victory over the world champions Sunday.

While throwing to Ken Boyer in the third, Larsen suddenly felt a sharp pain dart in his pitching shoulder. He concluded the inning in which he gave up six runs—and then retired. It is uncertain how long Larsen will be shelved.

Elsewhere, Cleveland's Indians were taking care of the last unvictorious team, edging Boston 5-4. The Red Sox had won seven straight.

In other games, Los Angeles topped Washington 2-1. Milwaukee thumped Cincinnati 11-5. Philadelphia bombed Pittsburgh 13-8. Baltimore defeated Kansas City 2-0 and Detroit edged Chicago's White Sox 2-1. The San Francisco-Chicago Cub game at Yuma, Ariz., was canceled due to high winds.

Cleveland won in the last of the ninth when Red Sox second baseman Pumpie Green booted a double play ball, allowing Jimmy Piersall to score with the winning run.

The combined two-hit pitching of Danny McDevitt and Bill Harris gave the Dodgers their seventh victory over Washington in a game curtailed by rain.

The Braves won their third game in eight outings with solid clubbing by two supposedly light

Missouri Valley Could Capture Both Tourneys

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The alphabetical battle for college basketball tournament honors has come down to the NCAA and the NIT with the MVC bidding to approach a feat CCNY accomplished nine years ago.

Before you call in the FBI, let's explain it.

With the National Collegiate and the National Invitation tournaments left from the four scrambles annually winding up the college season, the Missouri Valley Conference is in a good position to nail both.

Cincinnati, the MVC champion, is one of the four semifinalists set for the NCAA wrapup at Louisville's Freedom Hall Friday and Saturday after knocking off Kansas State, the nation's No. 1 team, last Saturday.

Bradley and St. Louis, the two powers that spent the season chasing Cincinnati in the MVC, are among the six survivors in the NIT in New York. Bradley is seeded second and St. Louis is seeded second, so they could win up as opponents in the championship game Saturday afternoon.

If the parlay comes off at Louisville and New York, it would rank as a double approximating the grand slam City College of New York scored in the NCAA and NIT in 1950 when teams were permitted to play in both tournaments.

Cincinnati, despite its great Oscar Robertson and its victory over the K-State team, voted the nation's best, is no shoe-in. The Bearcats face defense-minded California in Friday's semifinals and the Pacific Coast Conference champions have a 13-game winning streak after bagging the Far West NCAA regional over the weekend.

The other Louisville semifinal sends home-standing Louisville, the tournament giant—killer, against powerful West Virginia from the Southern Conference. Each can play in Cincinnati's class.

The same holds true in the NIT for Bradley and St. Louis. St. Louis goes against slick Providence Tuesday night in a quarterfinal that could be a problem after the way the Friars from New England played in upsetting Manhattan last Saturday.

If the Billikens win that one, they'll face rejuvenated St. John's in Thursday's semifinal that also matches Bradley with Tuesday night's New York U.-Oklahoma City winner.

The two big tournaments were left in the basketball spotlight after ennessee A&I wrapped up its third straight NAIA championship Saturday night in Kansas City and host Evansville won the NCAA small college, tourney Friday night. Tennessee A&I rallied in

The Miami racer said fuel line or carburetor trouble apparently caused the Saturday night flareup.

As Expected Fort Smith Takes Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fort Smith, Ark. (AP)—Fort Smith's Grizzlies again reign as the state's Class AA-AAA high school basketball champions.

The Grizzlies took their second straight title by defeating Van Buren's determined Panthers in the Class AA-AAA Basketball Tournament finals Saturday night, 46-30.

Van Buren succeeded in tying up Fort Smith's top scorer, 6-8 Tommy Boyer, but the Grizzlies sprang the point-making between James King and Dale McIntosh.

Boyer was held to 8 points as King netted 22. McIntosh scored 11. Boyer had set a new tournament scoring record of 31 points in the semifinals.

Van Buren, led in scoring by Earl Ears, 9 points, was able to penetrate Fort Smith's defense for only seven field goals.

Dickie James, Van Buren's top scorer, had to sit out the final game with a badly sprained ankle.

Boyer finished the tourney with a total of 75 points, a new record. He was named the tourney's most valuable player and picked for the all-tourney team.

Others on the all-tournament team were Larry Wofford of Fort Smith, James and Jimmy Campbell of Van Buren and Donnie Kessinger of Forrest City.

The all-tournament second team included Johnnie Bunch of Jonesboro, Gaylon Ward of Leachville, Charles Cobb of Blytheville, and King and McIntosh of Fort Smith.

West Almost Blows All-Star Game Lead

DENVER (AP)—

The West nearly blew a 16-point lead and needed a pair of free throws in the final minute Sunday to defeat the East 81-78 in the second annual National Industrial Basketball League All-Star game.

Carroll Williams of Seattle, a former San Francisco State star, dropped the charity tosses with 33 seconds left.

The most valuable player award went to the second half to topple Pacific Lutheran 87-87. Evansville's title came at the expense of Southwest Missouri State, 82-77.

Louisville, with a below 500 record at mid-season, and a mere 16-10 ledger entering NCAA play had the biggest weekend of the survivors. Saturday night, the Cardinals of Peck Hickman whipped Big 10 champion Michigan State 88-81 in the mid east finals at Evanston, Ill., after dropping defending NCAA champ Kentucky the night before.

Cincinnati, with Robertson turning in a brilliant all-around performance, broke away in the last two minutes to beat Kansas State 85-75 in the Mid-West finals at Lawrence, Kan.

West Virginia came from behind for the 14th time in its last 18 games for an 86-82 victory over Boston U. in the Eastern final at Charlotte, N. C.

And California blasted St. Mary's 66-46 in the Far West finals at San Francisco.

Bradley, which drew a first round bye, opened its bid for the NIT title with an 83-77 victory over hard-working Butler. St. John's which kayosed Villanova in the first round, joined Bradley in the semifinals with an 82-74 whipping of St. Bonaventure.

NYU and Providence scored their first round victories Saturday afternoon, NYU over Denver 90-81 and Providence over Manhattan 88-66 on Johnny Egan's 30-foot jump shot with six seconds left.

Scoring Picks Up in Bowling Meet

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Scoring had picked up in the open team division at the American Bowling Congress Tournament during the last few days.

When the Milwaukee Bridge Co. team rolled a 3101 series Sunday night to take seventh place in the standings, it marked the fifth day in a row that a score of 3100 or better was recorded.

The Milwaukee club's outburst was the seventh time in this tournament that a score of 3100 or better had been rolled, an ABC record. Last year, six teams rolled 3100 or more.

Despite new scoring in the team division, most experts have conceded the 1959 title to the Detroit Pfeiffers, who rolled a record 3243 on Feb. 25. The 72-day tourney has 42 days to run.

DOGS

BY FARLEY MANNING

No point in the standards of perfection drawn up for the various breeds of pure-bred canines is apt to challenge a judge's attention more sharply than the shape, placement, and especially the color of the dog's eyes.

Thus, it is well for anyone, before setting out to choose a dog to check what the standard says about "eyes" for the breed in which the prospective buyer is interested.

The dog may never be scheduled to compete in the show ring under an official judge; but since the price may be affected, the buyer does well to know the specification for bargaining purposes at least.

Shape and placement requirements vary from breed to breed, and for a given breed more than one color may be approved, depending often on the color of the animal. But an eye color that may be permissible in one breed may be a grave fault or even a disqualification in another. Unscrupulous dealers palm such dogs off on unknowing buyers, fast.

Although there are outstanding exceptions, generally speaking a light eye is anathema, especially, if it is yellow. However, among the several exceptions the Chesapeake Bay Retriever's eye, should be "clear yellow" and the Weimaraner's "blue-gray" or amber, according to the light.

As important as the general rule which demands dark eyes—hazel, brown, the darker the better, even truly black for most breeds.

Newborn puppies, like human babies' eyes darken with the passing weeks or months, and old dogs' eyes fade as their human counterparts. But many long-experienced breeders are convinced that no dog's eyes will become as dark as its breeding indicates it should, and that fading will be hastened, if the dog's diet is deficient in mineral content and vitamins.

Rep. Harris to Receive Award

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Owen Harris (D-Ark) was named winner of the 1959 Distinguished Service Award of the National Defense Transportation Assn.'s Washington chapter yesterday.

The association represents civilian, military and government groups concerned with emergency transportation problems.

The award to Harris, chairman of the House Interstate Commerce Committee, will be in the form of a plaque. It will be presented at the chapter's annual dinner March 28, in recognition of his "judicious service rendered in the Congress of the United States to further the development of a strong and effective national transportation system."
